

C⁴₄

↓ ↑ _ ↑

4 r m i t

3 A C E G ←

open C

BARITONE

IN DIVINE EYES

Text: Stephen J. Wolf © 2025; verse 4 adapted from William A. Dunkerley, 1908; inspired by PFLAG Nashville & Nashville in Harmony, and see Galatians 3:8

Music: MCKEE, CM; African American Spiritual, arranged by Harry T. Burleigh, 1866-1949

Slowly

or →

C↓ ↓

G7↑_↑↓↑

C7

F

① In Di-vine eyes all are/ black and white,

Am

F

C

Am

All shades, pink, yell-ow, red and brown;

E7

C

G6

C

So to live, all sis-ters, bro-thers free,

E7

G7

C

G7

May our love for each sib-ling a-bound,

②

C

G7

C7

F

Am

F

C

Am

Un-til ev-'ry-bo-dy/ matters to me As much as my\ own/ tribe,

E7

C

G6

C

E7

G7

C

G7

Un-til all the lives of our one race Are/ cher-ished with-out\ div-ide.

③

C

G7

C7

F

For Di-vine eyes see us/, les-bian and gay,

Am

F

C

Am

bi-, pan-, a\sex-u-al and straight,

E7

C

G6

C

E7

G7

C

G7

fe-male, male, non-bi-na-ry, in-ter-sex_, trans, no-thin' to hate.

④

C

G7

C7

F

Whe-ther Jew-ish, Chris-tian/, Mus-lim, Hin-du,

Am

F

C

Am

Bud-dhist, Sikh, Ba-hai or None,

E7

C

G6

C

E7

G7

C

G7

Let us yet a-gree that dig-ni-ty Is the birth-right of ev-e-ry-one.

⑤

C

G7

C7

F

Am

F

C

Am

In/ hu-man hearts meet/ East and West, And too meet South\ and/ North;

E7

C

G6

C

E7

G7

C

•

→ All/ souls you be one fam-i-ly Through/-out/ the whole\ wide earth.